“ Gary, Barbie, and Heidi,

You have been in my thoughts and prayers for several days now. And while I can sense your grief, your postings and comments about your mother have been a blessing to me - and probably to many others.

I remember your mother's laughter, and marveled at her joy and happiness. She had the joy and happiness of a young child that was truly infectious. She loved each of you dearly and was so proud of you.

Kitty and I even tried match making with our kids but that was not to be - only mothers will understand this obsession we have with wanting our kids to marry someone with similar backgrounds and beliefs.

One of my favorite memories of Kitty was right after Erik went to West Point I was having a hard time handling the separation. One Sunday morning Kitty asked me how we were doing and tears started rolling down my cheeks. She hugged me, and in a few minutes came back with a card and telephone number of a dear family who was at the Academy. She urged me to call the wife, and I did which eased my mind. She was always there to help when she could.

I know you will miss her, but what joyful memories you will have - she was just that type of person. Take care, and may the peace of God continue to shore you up. You had a great role model and that is indeed a blessing.

Love,

Suzanne Sewell
