“ Service was so sweet. Lillian was in my Sunday School Class and what I remember most was her sweet spirit and sweet smile. She was one of the sweetest and kindest person I have every known. Her sweet smile reflected the love of Jesus. I have missed her and will miss her. But she is with Jesus and that is a blessing! Bonnie Holcomb

“ What a privilege I had to know Lillian and Warren over the years! Before meeting them I was a friend and fellow scuba enthusiast with son Mike. Later I came to know her brother. Charles. Through all of these memories there stands a central figure and that is Lillian and her purposeful involvement in their lives. I never knew her to be a risk taker, (and loved the story about wrapping herself up so as to be able to spend time at the Beach with her nieces). But that did not stop her from praying in earnest for her son Mike when he would head out West to stalk elk and adventure to the open ocean to spear grouper, snapper, and cobia. The care and love she poured out for Warren was a testament to her love for him and our Lord when Warren wasn't always appreciative.

No one could have done so much for others so well without the filling and refilling of God's Holy Spirit. Well done at setting for us such a great example. Bill Kepper

“ When I think of Lillian, I remember one of the last Sunday's she was able to attend our Sunday School Class at Bradfordville First Baptist Church. She had been receiving blood transfusions and was very weak. Our classroom was at the end of the hall. I looked up and saw Lillian entering our classroom. She was short of breath and pale, but she was coming to Sunday School that day. Her dedication to attend in spite of her condition was a testament to her faith and an inspiration to me. She was such a sweet lady and will be truly missed.

“ Mrs. Sasnett was a very sweet lady. I enjoyed working with her and learning how much from her as we worked together for Hamilton County School District. I considered her as one of my closest friends from work. She was always a lady and you knew she loved the Lord and she loved the children AND her career. She also loved her family dearly.
