“ So, so sorry for your loss. I was at their home every 2 weeks for Loretta to do my nails. Nick was always working in the yard or fixing something when he came home from work. Years later with Nick in a wheelchair, Loretta took excellent care of him. You could see the love between the two of them. He will be missed by family and friends, prayers for everyone. Betty Wilder

“ R.I.P. Dad. You will be missed, and always loved. I am happy that you are no longer in a battle with your disease. Actually... You won the battle, because you are whole again and living in Paradise with our Heavenly Father and your other family members who went before you. You will always live in my heart, and in everything I do. I got my fishing, hunting, and outdoor skills from you, and will think of you every time I am enjoying them, knowing that you are there with me. I love you dad
