“ The most BEAUTIFUL person that I have ever known. She would do anything for anyone. She has raised 8 beautiful children all by the same man that she was inseparable from through thick and thin by each others side !! They met on my mom's 18th birthday as my handsome Dad was passing through Craig Colorado (hitchhiking) Thank God she stopped to pick him up and had been together everyday since. How empty we all feel inside with you gone.... it's still hard to believe. I feel like we are all lost now just wandering, wishing, hopelessly waiting to be with you all of us together again... you were our beautiful mother. The bond that kept us tight... we need you mom!! I wish I could hear your voice.. once more.. or feel your warmth when you hug us tight... listen to the smack that you always made when giving us a kiss.. you'd say if it didn't make that sound it didn't count... you're rasppy laugh when you'd laugh so hard you couldn't breath... I want you to yell at us for constantly bugging you all 8 of us all the time... you couldn't even go pee without us coming in. I WISH I could see you on the couch watching " as the world turns" or all my children then right at the serious part i could write you a note again asking if we could have a pop or go play outside. You could circle yes or no and you'd write in maybe. Lol... OMG I I MISS YOU!! YouR beef stoghonof or awesome pecan pie.. I miss soo meny things about you. It hurts so bad to think of it. I'm so sorry I took our time we had together for granted and now its over and you're gone. Only memories of you are left. If I only knew what a short moment we'd share on earth together, I would've cherished each and every second with you SO much slower/deeper. You mean soo SO MUCH to all of us. I LOVE YOU MOM!! I'M SORRY...
