“ So very sorry that your mother lost the battle with her illness. I know she fought hard for everyone--but at the same time she was ready to go Home when it was time. Among a lot of things I will miss most are her beautiful smile, her guidance on nutrition, and including me in a lot of her activities such as walks in Costco/Sam's, walking our fur babies, and our talks on the phone several times a week.

Hope you realize how much she loved you and how very proud she was of all of your accomplishments.
