“ We are all so very sad to hear about our precious Aunt Anne passing away. I will miss talking to her. She loved her family so very much. She also loved talking about world events & things going on in our world.. She would get very excited to hear how everyone here in Georgia was doing. I will miss you , Aunt Anne.. hope and pray you knew how much I loved you. Amanda Sinclair

“ To the family of Anne, I would like to express my most sincere condolences. I'm sorry that you have to deal with the pain that death brings. May you draw comfort in the memories you have all made with your loved one, and from the promise that God gives us found at John 5:28,29 where it says, " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." That is one of my most cherished scriptures in the Bible. Also, one that I have drawn comfort from are the beautiful words we read at Psalms 34:18, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." We can't even imagine how marvelous it will be to welcome our dead loved ones back to a paradise. I will be sure to keep the family in my prayers.
