It was an honor to share a little of our lives together as Correctional Officers in Tallahassee Florida. We were Partners on the job and shared many laughs. I always found it interesting with the stories that Arthur would share with me of his military experiences. He shared some funny stories of his military days. he loved his family. There were times that he would bring his wives cooking to work and have me try his favorite foods. he would always laugh at me because I would hesitate eating it because i never knew what I was eating. but I would always try it and found it to be pretty good. but never knew what I was eating. and he would always tease me about if you only knew what it was. the funny thing is when we took lunch or dinner I would always reach into his lunch box and grab a bite. Arthur it was an honor. Fly high my friend. Randy (West Palm Beach Florida).
