“ Aubrey, you will be missed! He was such a sweet and kind person. Anytime we would see each other he would always stop and talk. I will miss seeing him out and about in town. I will be praying for Nicole, Jeremy and Renee as well as the rest of the family. I worked with Nicole, but got to know Aubrey when he worked down the hall in CMS.

“ Aubrey was the life of the party when team building and quiet as a church mouse in meetings. When we gathered around the conference room table, Aubrey’s presence and wit brought smiles all around. He was always ready and willing to help with a project or a covered dish event. Aubrey’s kindhearted friendliness extended to me as a neighbor—stopping to say hello and catch up, bringing the grandkids to trick or treat at our house, or safeguarding packages when I was out of town. We’re eternally grateful to Aubrey for calling me that fateful day in October 2017, alerting me to the fact that EMS was at my house and attending Bruce’s mom.

It’ll be a hard day without you, our friend, but we’ll tell you all about it when we see you again.

“ I remember when Aubrey walked into the conference room where we were assembled to conduct the last of many, many interviews for a position at DJJ. We’d held out to find the perfect fit and when I saw him, I knew we’d found him. There’s no rational explanation for that knowing so I’ll just say he affirmed my intuition.

What will stay with me about that day’s conversation was how he unabashedly revealed a personal struggle and then with abandon, answered a question about what he liked to do outside of work. “Oh, it’s all about my grandchildren,” he said. Then he whipped out his wallet and offered it to us with a hearty, “Want to see them?”

We hired him.

Aubrey went on to delight me with his love of pivot tables, touch me with his appreciation of bird song, impress me with never (ever) raising his voice and surprise me with a wry sense of humor that made me laugh out loud.

More than this, Aubrey was a good, decent and kind man who quietly left his imprint on us. Gentleness was his super power.

I am comforted in the knowledge that his consideration and patience made our world better. Still, I will surely miss him.

My heart goes out to his family and friends, especially.

With love,

Penny

“ Aubrey was more like an uncle to me growing up. I remember so many game nights at his house, helping them move, and having meals with them. He even cooked the food for my wedding. I love you Uncle Aubrey and I will miss you dearly! ❤️

“ Aubrey was the kindest, gentlest, and friendly person I've every known. He automatically includes you as part of his family no questions asked. He was caring and showed it. You knew he was a Christian by the fruits of the spirit that was manifested in his life. I'll miss you my friend. You are safe now in our savior's arms.

“ Years ago Aubrey shared his delicious Macaroni and Cheese recipe with me. I have made it for many family and holiday gatherings since then. It is a family favorite and is always requested. They absolutely love it and think I make the best Macaroni and Cheese ever. I am quick to tell them that I got my recipe from Aubrey. I was always excited to tell him each time I made it and how much my family loves it. The funny thing is he always encouraged me to sprinkle some "smoked" paprika on top for new twist to the recipe, but I never did. I think I might need to finally give it try. I bet he will be smiling down from heaven and thinking it is about time! I will always think of Aubrey when I make his Macaroni and Cheese. Aubrey will be greatly missed as a friend and coworker.

“ Goodbye dear friend. I know you won't be reading this, but I wanted to send one last message to my lunch buddy/FB guru/silly meme-sender/all-around terrific guy. I know your family will be lost without you, but you have given them a lifetime of examples of what a good, decent, and kind man looks like in this world. You were a wonderful, thoughtful, caring friend and the whole lunch group will miss you terribly. You are now in a place with no more pain, no heartache (or heart ailments!), and no diets. We talked about what Heaven would be like – and now you are Home, in God's Kingdom, forever at peace and forever filled with absolute joy. Fly on the wings of eagles my friend, for you are now free from these earthly tethers. I will keep Renee and the kids and grandkids in my prayers, asking God to provide them the courage and strength they will need to live without you. Until we meet again...

“ Aubrey was always part of our lunch group and we would go out to lunch at least 3 times a week. Aubrey and I would always see how long it would take for him to spill something on his shirt! It happened 90% of the time. He and I would also send text messages to each other across the table about people in the restaurant. Can't tell you how many times I almost choked or spewed my drink after reading his text. But he would always make my day when we would be waiting for the food and he would burst out into song in a high female voice. He was such a dear and special friend and will be greatly missed. I know I will see him again and I'm sure he is catching up with my mother.
