“ I worked for the county in the 1960's and enjoyed knowing and working with Bobby. Also enjoyed meeting and getting to know Rose. He was a fine man, a good person, and I was sorry to learn of his death. My deepest sympathy to his family. Teresa Dean

“ I will always think fondly of Bobby. He was a true friend and I was very fortunate to spend a lot of time with him after he retired. He was very interesting and shared many stories of his childhood and experiences later in life. At work he was one of the most dedicated and thorough employees who ever worked for Leon County. Very knowledgeable and meticulous. I will truly miss him.
