“ "Aunt Brenda" welcomed the Sayles into her home having never met us! She handed her car keys to our 16 year old son whom she knew absolutely nothing about so that our Texas boy could experience Daytona Spring Break. She treated our children as if they were family and she loved from her whole ❤️ heart. That is who she was and how we remember her. We have always loved you dear Brenda, thank you for your warm heart, a million laughs, hospitality like none we have since experienced and wonderful memories we will always cherish. Prayers for John and Bucky and family. Love Babs and Jerry

“ Brenda called me last year after hearing I got hurt at work. She just wanted me to know she was thinking about me. She shared how lucky she was to have John as her husband. She was always so sweet no matter what was going on. She loved hearing about my trips to Cuba and she dreamed of visiting the country. I gotta tell ya, Brenda, I think Heaven is a lot better than Cuba these days. I love you, Brenda, and always will. Vicky Droze
