

Carolyn Ruth English

January 29, 1944 - July 10, 2025

Carolyn Ruth English, age 81, passed away at home on July 10, 2025. She was born on January 29, 1944, in Wichita, Kansas.

Ruth pursued a passion of being an accomplished seamstress, that could sew anything from clothes to recovering any type of furniture.

She also worked in operations for CSX for transportation (the railroad) many years before she retired.

Ruth was an avid reader, reading many books in her down time. Her chosen animal for life was her spoiled rotten cats.

Some of her proudest moments in life were when she shared the gospel light with her loving husband Paul — to become two of the most cherished clowns (Jingles & Little Doc) by the Shriner children.

Carolyn is survived by two sons, Timothy Hamilton (Michelle) and Anthony Hamilton

Numerous grandchildren & great-grandchildren

Predeceased by her were her parents, Oliver & Edith Owen, her loving husband Paul D. English & her grandson John Hamilton.

The family would like to thank her #1 caregiver Debra Brady, her granddaughter, Krystal Gould & daughter-in-law, Lisa Winfield for the love & laughter in the last months of her life.

Also, Big Bend Hospice for the kindness & caring, and the family & friends that stepped up when the family needed a helping hand.
