“ I was one year behind the Kiwi at the Citadel. What a guy! We spent many afternoons together on that old football practice field we called "Soldiers Field." Charlie's character and spirit made it bearable. Always a great and humorous attitude. Always popular and loved. He will be greatly missed.

“ Ms. Betty, Stephanie, Nancy and family. I have very fond memories of being neighbors for so many years. The school carpools, (with music and singing provided by Mr. Charlie), staying at your place while our house was being repaired after the fire, and hanging out with the rest of the neighborhood gang. He was one of the most colorful, humorous, and genuinely friendly people I have ever known. My thoughts, prayers and love for y'all and the rest of the family.
