“ Cheryl and I met in 1973 while riding the bus to school. We have been close friends ever since. She was always such a sweet loving sole. Beach trips and riding around town singing ‘Do you think I’m sexy’ and ‘Old time Rock and Roll’. Dancing when ever and where ever we could. We were supposed to be dancing for the next 20 years, now we will dance in memories. I will always hold our memories (and secrets) close. Until we meet again keep dancing. You will be truly missed.
