what was right, no matter the cost. A giving spirit, even when she had little, Dana gave her all. She was a trusted coworker, a fearless advocate, and a source of light to all who crossed her path. Dana wasn't just memorable—she was unforgettable. A true one in a million. A living legend.

“ Dana always had the best outlook on anything and everything. If you asked her a question you had better brace yourself for the answer. She told you like she saw it. Honest as the day is long. She kept us in stitches from the time she would run through our house with pigtails flying and the time we had a shaving cream fight in the house. We will miss her but know that we will see her again.
