“ So many fun memories of DQ, I worked with him for decades. He took his work seriously and was always there willing to help anyone who needed it. There was also a devilish fun side to him. We shared music CDs, went out for Chinese at lunch, played practical jokes on each other. He was always a gentleman, always considerate and an animal lover with a big heart. My sympathies to his family.

My husband worked with Danny for many years. He was a wonderful roll model! Danny always had family and friends at his table for a yummy meal and super conversation. We have memories of Danny on beach trips and Carolina's! Again, he was a gentle and kind soul.
