“ I didn't know David for long. Met him at church and worked with him there for a while. He had a great sense of humor and seemed like a great all-around guy.

“ David was a good man and friend. I will miss his humor as he always seemed to have a positive attitude. I real fun guy to be around. I enjoyed the time he opened his home to gather and share God's word through small group study. May God bless his soul and comfort his family. Rest in peace my friend. You will be truly missed....AJ..

“ I enjoyed talking to David at the family get-togethers at Thanksgiving. One summer day when I was covered in sweat while walking down the road in my 40-pound vest, he drove up by me and gave me an in-depth interrogation about my sanity. We had a good laugh before he drove on. Clifton Folsom

“ You were there when I done something that was against your granny's wishes and got married the first time. You were only 5 years old, but never said anything to anyone cause you had no idea it was something granny would have had a fit over. Love you and will miss you. Take care of all our family that you are with now. I know you are all having a big celebration

“ His daughter Beth is like a sister to me so in return he was like a dad. I always called him daddy David. I remember when Beth invited me to spend the weekend with her at his house. We went with his church to a overnight lock in to Fun Station. I wish I could have been more times like that I. I will miss you so much Daddy David.
