“ I have had a lovely trip down memory lane the last few days. We have had some crazy fun times together and I won't ever think of El Chico's or Godfather's Pizza without a smile coming to my face.

Donnie was w/o a doubt the reason we engaged so fully in Northwoods. He was a one man welcome committee and made it so easy to join in and feel accepted. Awesome friends who I dearly love and feel truly blessed having known you.

Our prayers are with all of you as you learn to navigate this new phase of your lives.

We love you all,

Bill & Sharon Neal

“ He was my best friend, teacher, mentor, challenger of thoughts and actions, someone I could talk with endlessly about the Lord Jesus Christ and His word. Best of all he is my brother in Christ and of the same body of Christ that I am. I look forward to seeing Donnie again in a much brighter place, in a new body that cannot get sick....a body of spiritual perfection that no disease can touch nor can evil influence. He is home now, in the cup of God's hands, in a light that never stops shining, a place that will never go dry and with a God that always listens to every word spoken. I will surely miss him until that day we unite again in a heavenly place. Glenn Turner
