“ I'm so sorry to hear of this sad news. I had known this fine man almost as long as I'd known Marlene which is coming up on 37 years. Most always I just addressed him as Dad. He was always kind, caring, thoughtful and always gave good advice. One of my best memories will always be times that we've ridden in the car together. He could give directions to anyone driving in amazing detail. Simply from memory he could tell you how many miles, turn left at the next road, right at the stop sign, etc. It always left me amazed to the extent that I had my doubts about his blindness. I know this wonderful man will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him and certainly by me.
