“ I'll start by offering my heartfelt condolences and prayers to the family. My name is Justin, and I work at Interstate Batteries. Mr Ed left a lifelong lasting impression with me that I won't forget. He was one of our absolute favorite customers to see come through the door. I was helping Mr Ed 7 years ago and got the call my wife was in labor with our second child. Mr Ed told me to stop what I was doing and "go". I stayed for a few min and he firmly said. Justin-stop what you're doing. I can wait for someone else, you don't want to be late. Ever since then he would always ask how that "baby" was doing. I am going to miss seeing and talking with him. He was a true gentleman. To the family- know that Mr Ed cared greatly for all of you. He always liked talking about hunting with grandkids and the joys family brought him. I will pray for comfort in this time of sadness. He was a wonderful man, and will be missed by many!

“ I am so sorry for the loss of a fine man. It's been a few years since talking with Ed, but I have many great memories of a true gentleman and often think of our conversations during our railroad days. RIP Ed
