“ Anyone whoever met George Lane, Jr. knew that he was a very special person when dealing with people. He never met a stranger and made friends easily. He was the best reported and newspaper man I ever met and could find more news and stories in a few hours than most others could do in days. His knowledge of current events and politics in particular was unsurpassed by most. He will be greatly missed. I am proud to have known him.

“ So many memories of my local historian mother working with George on feature stories in SW Florida. They were fast friends for so long. George was a crackerjack reporter in the region for Bureau Chief Robert Bowden of the St. Petersburg Times (now Tampa Bay Times.) Nathan can always be proud of his Daddy's many historical columns, features, his deadline news reporting & of course his important books. George

“ When I moved to Punta Gorda in 1983, the first person I met was Mike Lane. We have stayed friends every since. I had breakfast with him and Nicky this morning. I cleaned the Arcadia newspaper offices for extra money in the mid 80's. I have the book of Arcadia history (signed by George) and I cherish that book still. My deepest condolences to the Lane family. I am so glad that Mike and Nick got to spend some time with George the last few weeks.
