“ I love you and miss you everyday. You took the place of our father, you were my best friend, brother & discipline when I needed it, guidance and pure unconditional love for your baby sister. I miss our emotional talks and. arguments when deemed necessary. I miss your words of wisdom and your humor, which I got from you. I miss your laugh but above all I miss my brother....R. I. P until we see each other again I'll love you forever and a day.

“ Adair is my Brother. Adair brought me closer to the Lord than any preacher ever has. What a great Man. His smile and laughter will be missed by everyone that knew him. He was like a member of our family who we Loved to see and laugh with every time we got together. My sister said that he was the "kindest man I ever met". You are at Peace now Brother. I am sure he has already met half the people in Heaven and is working on the other half now. Our Prayers of Peace and Comfort go out to Rosie and All of his Family and Friends. Rest in Peace My Brother, We will ALL see you when We get Home.

*We love you,
