“ Henry and I met at Portland SOBA. I had known Pat for a few years before that. At the Portland SOBA, as the retired Oregon Marine Board Facilities Manager, I was asked to be in charge of the "Significant Other Program", known as the "Spouses tours" in the old days. Most were wives of members, and Henry was the only male who showed up. He sat in front of the van with me and became my navigator, and in the short week we spent together had many conversations about many things, and became friends. So I know him to be a very good man. I regret he is no longer with us and express condolences to Pat and the family who will miss him so very much. ron rhodehamel
