November 14, 1923 - November 14, 2022

Jack D. Clemons, 99, passed away on Monday, November 14, 2022, at his home.

Mr. Clemons was preceded in death by his parents, John and Mamie Strickland Clemons; his wife, Margie Smith Clemons; his son, Jack Douglas “Doug” Clemons, Jr.; and his granddaughter, Amy Clemons.

He is survived by his daughters, Lynne Scarbrough (John) and Ann White (Denny) and his daughter-in-law, Martha Clemons.

Mr. Clemons was a Tallahassee native, graduating from Leon High School in 1941. On December 18, 1947, he married Margie Smith Clemons.

After serving in the United States Navy as a Torpedoman, Mr. Clemons returned to Tallahassee and began working as a Traffic Planner for the Department of Transportation.

Mr. Clemons was associated with North Florida Baptist Church. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He enjoyed the great outdoors and loved fishing and hunting. One of his greatest loves was Florida State University (FSU) football; he was the team’s #1 fan! He and Margie attended the very first game at Centennial Field and while he was able, he missed only two games, both for the birth of his children. At some point, Mr. Clemons developed a love for flying. He even took Margie on a thrilling and unforgettable ride over Lake Jackson.

He will be greatly missed by his family. Private graveside services will be held at Tallahassee Memory Gardens.
