“ Mr. Jack, I met through mama, Marilyn Pearson-Cox and the rest of his Hardee buddies. He baked banana bread and sent a piece to me without nuts because he knew and cared that I, too, was fighting oral cancer and could only eat soft foods. It meant the world to me and a memory I will always cherish. Such a sweet man, a beautiful smile, and a loving heart. I know he will be missed and pray for the family and friends.
