“ My uncle Jerry's passing reminded me so much of my dad's. They both had the best personality always making everybody laugh and cutting up with everybody around always made u laugh no matter what they were going thru life of the party. I was fortunate enough 2 get 2 see him one last time within 2 weeks of his passing and again as always he made me laugh. He was a man amongst men and anybody that knew him knew that. He would help anybody just don't cross him or u would see a totally different side but he knew he was right and wanted them 2 open there eyes only 2 help them. I miss u uncle Jerry and I will always love u and never forget u. Kinda worries me though u and daddy up there together I can only imagine. Don't give them 2 much hell and tell daddy I love and miss him 2

“ Uncle Jerry was over of the best people I have ever known. He was funny and loving. I will miss him so very much. I know that he and all of his brothers and sisters as well as his parents, lovingly referred to as Bigmama and Granddaddy by us older grandkids and Bigmama and Bigdaddy by everyone else, are having a great time celebrating his homecoming. I look forward to seeing you again Uncle Jerry, when the lord calls me home. Prayers for my cousins Darlene "Dink", and Jerry, Jr. "JJ" and all my love and prayers to Aunt Ann.
