“ Jl,

Bud, our fur girls (Ella and Mia) and I will surely miss you...we met you and Andy and the market when yall were selling tshirts. You always came in and talked about how we were all gonna get some kind of hustle going to make money. We all laughed together on how one of us was gonna be rich.. lol at the end of the day, it was none of us, but we could all laugh over it.

Over the last few years so we all grew to know each other, it was normal routine to see you and Andy come by.

It was so obvious when I told the furbabies that here comes JL or Andy's dad they would start their singing howl. You have become an awesome part of my life. I say become as you will always be in my heart. I will miss your smile, ur laughter, the way you twisted your mustache lol. Kinda like my dad always did. And definitely will miss our Diet Dr. Pepper days. You always called me sweetheart... it will never be the same without seeing you come around the corner and saying.. hey honey.

All is well, because I know your in good hands. I also know that I will see you again... ur up there with some of my favorite people. Do me a favor and kick Andy in the butt when he gets down. Let him know you are with him...

Love u lots honey,

Til we see ya.....
