

Mr. John Walter Sweeney

September 1, 1933 - December 19, 2024

John Walter Sweeney, 91, of Tallahassee, Florida, passed away on Thursday, December 19, 2024. He was born to Evelyn Killion Sweeney and Frank Sweeney on September 1, 1933, in Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Sweeney lived in Tallahassee off and on for over 40 years. He was a devoted patriot who deeply loved his country and cherished his family. He loved traveling, fishing, woodworking, China and many other endeavors. He was married to the love of his life, Orelina Sweeney, for 65 years and was an outstanding father and family man. Mr. Sweeney graduated with a Bachelor's degree from Florida State University. He was a member of Sigma Nu, which was significant his entire life for the lifelong friends he made. He was a geologist for the Federal Bureau of Mines. Once he retired, he started a successful import business. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

Mr. John Sweeney is preceded in death by his wife, the love of his life, Orelina Sweeney; and his mother, Evelyn Killion.

Mr. Sweeney is survived by his daughters, Deidre Dawson (Scott), Cathleen Fleming (Paul), and Teresa Sweeney; grandchildren, Tyler Dawson, Ryan Coons, Sean Dawson, Matthew Coons, and Emily Grace Fleming; as well as family and friends.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday, December 27, 2024, at Abbey Funeral Home, followed by a private family gathering.
