“ In past few days I have been reviewing some memories given to me at a time when my cancer was first in remission. One photo album and letter was written by Jolie. It contains photos and memoirs of our past in high school and SIU Carbondale, the greatest place on earth. She had taken an RV trip during her cancer fight to visit long lost places of her past with Casey. I share many fun memories with her. Wendy Schriver

“ Jolie and I never knew we were related until we talked about our pasts and families. And then it got weird... like we were twins who were separated at birth. I loved every moment that we spent with Casey and Jolie. There just weren't enough of them.

Jolie, you got this!

I only met her a couple of times but her energy was beautiful. My favorite was seeing her smile next to her husband on their travels!
