“ Was so sorry to hear about Ken. He and I worked together in the Bonham Bldg and were chocoholic buddies. Being diabetic, I avoided sweets to the best of my ability but once in a while a chocolate craving would take over my will power. Ken and I would share a Snickers bar. He was a great guy. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ Mister Ken will always be remembered to us as one of our kindest neighbors. He was always so sweet, and he had a smile no matter hard things were. We will forever miss our sweet neighbor! Rest In Peace to God we pray.
