My cousin Larry was one of the nicest, sweetest guys I ever knew and I knew him pretty well since we grew up together in Jacksonville and lived next door to each other for years. He was one of my first friends and playmates, starting at about age 3, so looking at some of these pictures of him as a young kid takes me straight back to our childhood days. I'll always remember the good times we had...from riding our tricycles and playing in the park when we were pre schoolers living on Pearl Street to the fun and exciting adventures we shared later on, with Carol and Johnny, exploring the woods surrounding the large property where we lived off of Beach Blvd. (Thank goodness our parents never found out about some of those adventures!) Even as a little kid, I remember how much Larry loved baseball and football. He would play imaginary ball games for hours in the yard by himself. He would even announce and referee his games. It was fascinating to watch him. My final memory of Larry is from last year when we had a really nice visit in his home. As I sat by his bedside and recounted some of our favorite childhood memories, I was so happy to occasionally see him respond with that sweet smile of his. I admired Larry so much. The way he faced life's trials with courage, grace and a cheerful spirit was such an inspiration. Larry left a wonderful legacy. He loved God, his family, his friends and his country. May God bless and comfort you Betty, Travis, Debbie, Terry and other family members as you celebrate his life...a life well lived

“ My granddaddy Mac was one of the bravest and strongest men that I knew. He was full of humor and always put a smile on anyone's face. He was also one of the biggest Gator fans in the Gator Nation.

He was such a gentle soul, caring and loving anyone who crossed his path. He loved helping people and volunteering which only showed how much he loved people. Not only that, everyone loved him! Most importantly, he loved sharing Jesus with everyone he knew. That was where his heart was.

Although life hasn't always been easy, with the love and support of my grandmother, he was able to smile and face life head-on with contentment and cheer.

I will always hold you close to my heart and carry out your legacy!

I love you granddaddy Mac. I always have and always will.
