“ Larry was our next door neighbor. Anytime we needed help or information, he would gladly provide. He knew a lot of information! He and Kathy watched our children grow up. Larry would offer guidance/ conversation when ever the opportunity provided. He was also a busy man.

One memory is of my daughter running over to Larry's house to tell him to come see the snake she caught...thank you Kathy for letting us borrow your husband from time to time:)... Anyway, Larry came over and said "Ahhh, it won't hurt ya". My daughter proceeded to step in the house with the snake, and I gave her some stern and choice words in Spanish. Larry leaned over and said " I don't know what your Ma said...but I don't think you better bring it in the house". She was disappointed, but Larry's guidance provided my needed relief. He helped her put it in a bucket, for her Dad to see. It was a laughable moment.

Another memory is of my son somehow telling Larry that he was afraid of the dark. My son ran inside and told me what Mr. Larry said..."you don't need to be afraid of the dark, God is always with you..." It was a nice moment that my son took to heart, and wrestled with less.

So many memories....

But that was Larry, a good neighbor, a good man,.. a Godly man.

Rest in peace Larry. You are with God. Amen.
