

Mrs. Lauren Wunningham

October 25, 1958 - March 10, 2023

Laureen Sue Wunningham, 64, died Friday, March 10, 2023.

She was a native of Rochester, New York. After traveling extensively as a military dependent, she settled in Tallahassee, Florida in 1977.

She retired from the State of Florida after over 30 years of service. She enjoyed traveling and spending time with her family.

She is survived by her siblings, Kathleen Strickland, of Titusville, Florida; Brenda Wunningham and Valerie Wunningham, both of Tallahassee, Florida; and Eric Wunningham, of Cheyenne, Wyoming. She is also survived by her niece, Stephanie Mulherin, of Tallahassee, Florida; and nephews, David Strickland and Brian Strickland, of Titusville, Florida. Two great-nephews, Nolan Gorski and Colton Gorski-Mulherin; and two great-nieces, Khloe Strickland and Elizabeth Strickland, also survive.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Sandra J. Davis; her husband, Edward Kerr; and her niece, Jennifer Alice Strickland.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hands and Hearts for Horses, Inc, a therapeutic riding facility in Thomasville, Georgia. It serves children with special needs. Laureen enjoyed watching her great-nephews ride there.
