“ I will always cherish my memories of you Uncle Wuddy. As I drove home to Ocala I found myself looking into every window of every rig that passed, just hoping it would be you. I will always remember your undeniable love for Aunt Joyce and hers for you. The way she let you think you were in charge and you somehow believing it. Your appreciation for cleanliness and taking pride in what you've worked for. I think I got that from you. Dont worry about things down here, we will look after Aunt Joyce. She is an amazing woman who married an amazing man. We miss you Uncle Wuddy.

Love Always,
