

Mr. Lowell A. Balthaser

April 21, 1935 - April 27, 2020

Lowell A. Balthaser, 85, of Tallahassee, passed away on Monday, April 27, 2020, at his residence with his wife by his side.

A son of the late Paul and Madge Berry Balthaser, he was born in Amanda, Ohio on April 21, 1935. A graduate of FSU he was also a member of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity. He had a very successful career serving as General Manager for an automobile dealership and a general insurance agency. He later served as a salesman for a topical law reporting company and also worked for Worldcom.

A talented pool player, he earned the nickname "Lucky Lowell" from his circle of friends. He had a great sense of humor and quick wit and enjoyed FSU football, snow skiing and family cookouts.

Survivors include his wife of 66 years, Geraldine "Gerry" Garrett Balthaser; son, Mike Balthaser (wife, Lynn); daughter, Michelle Edgar; grandson, Spencer Balthaser (wife, Shannon); granddaughters, Nicole Jones (husband, Daniel) and Marissa Edgar; great-grandsons, Luke Balthaser and Zachary Jones; and brother, Joseph Balthaser (wife, Janet).

Due to continuing Covid-19 guidelines, a private graveside service will be held on Friday, May 1, 2020, at Tallahassee Memory Gardens. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association. Online condolences may be expressed at www.abbeyfh.com.
