“ My big brother was a blessing to everyone he met. He had a lot of adversity in his life but handled it with amazing grace. He loved the Lord and we all know where he is. He is in no pain, no more tears, no more sorrow. He's with our Lord and maker. I love him. I appreciate everything he has done for me and our family. He was a lovely, beautiful person and he will be missed!

Wayne was amazing Person someone I loved as an additional Father in my life during grave misfortunes and extraordinary blessings that will be cherished and remembered as lessons learned. He will be remembered and missed by all who had the opportunity to be a part of his legacy.

Hoping him and my dad are throwing around a baseball above us there in those silver and gold lined clouds
