“ My sincere condolences to Marcia's family. I met Marcia in 1978 while she lived with her parents. We used to chat and hang-out while she sunbathed in her green swim suit. I remember her smooth southern draw when she spoke and laughed. I joined the U.S. Navy in 1980 and only returned to Tallahassee to visit my family but never again saw Marcia but now I know that she did very well for herself by having a great big family! It's just such a shame to see that she left the world at such a very young age. We can all remember her big smile and her kindness and keep her in our hearts and minds everyday keeping her memory alive.
