“ So many good memories of Marvin and JoNell. Going together on camping trips and riding motorcycles in the beautiful Smoky Mountains. Meetings with the Canopy Road Riders and riding with them to eat somewhere in the country. Marvin building our house with Elliott. They worked so hard, even in the heat! After our divorce Marvin would call me every so often to see how I was doing. Made me feel special. He was a special man, loving and caring. Will miss those phone calls and I know how much his family will miss him. Praying for them, and I am sure he is with our Heavenly Father and maybe even riding on a Goldwing.

“ Marvin was a good friend. We rode motorcycles together for many years. He helped me out of a bind; he was always there for a friend in need. Take care, good buddy!

“ Marvin Culverson was such a kind man and a true gentleman. Besides servicing AC/Htg units, he was always willing to help any way he could. He will be missed.
