“ I have so many fond memories spending the night with you girls when we were children either at your house or mine. I remember spending the night - on a school night even - and your mom getting up so early and make us breakfast before we walk to the school bus stop in the cold winter air. The breakfast sandwich she made us is so memorable it just satisfied and warmed and tasted like a gourmet treat. Years after when I was an adult, I mentioned that sandwich to your mom. It was a fried potato sandwich with mayonnaise on White bread wrapped in foil to keep it warm as we walked to the school bus stop. It was so delicious!! Your mom's reply when I complimented it years later was "Oh! That was all I had in the house at the moment.". Your mother was so beautiful -- through and through -- and strong and warm and accepting. She had such a beautiful smile and a ready, pleasing laugh. She took care of her own and loving looked out for others God brought into her path.
