

Mary Carolyn Wiemer

March 13, 1937 - June 4, 2025

Mary Carolyn Wiemer, 88, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, June 4, 2025.

Born in Lake Park, Georgia, Carolyn moved at a young age to Miami, Florida, where she graduated from Miami High School. After many years in Miami, she relocated to Tallahassee, Florida, which she proudly called home for the rest of her life.

She retired from the State of Florida after a long and dedicated career with the Department of Agriculture. In addition to her public service, she also worked for many years at JCPenney.

Carolyn was a devoted member of Saint Paul's United Methodist Church in Tallahassee, where she found a warm and supportive community.

A passionate traveler, Carolyn explored much of the United States and the world — including memorable journeys to Japan and Australia to visit her son.

She is survived by her daughter, Laura Jackman, and her husband, Ken, of Niceville, FL; her son, Randy Wiemer, and his husband, Michael, of Cathedral City, CA; her grandsons, Andrew Jackman and his wife, Shilpa, of Bloomfield, NJ, and Bryan Jackman and his wife, Kimberly, of Astoria, OR; and three cherished great-grandchildren — Naveen, Sheena, and Simon.
