December 8, 1956 - November 11, 2025

Richard Oliver Dixon was born on December 8, 1956, to Frank and Sara Dixon in Panama City, Florida. Rick peacefully passed to his heavenly home on November 11, 2025. He was a resident of Tallahassee, Florida.

Rick began his professional life as a police officer in Panama City, Florida. He continued that career in Mississippi. He proudly served his country in the United States Air Force. He retired as a distinguished Master Sergeant. After his military retirement, he held a position that required him travel to different states, as he trained active-duty law enforcement officers in computer software.

Rick had a special relationship with his son, Christopher. Chris was born with Downs Syndrome. His father taught him how to utilize his I-pad and other electronics. He also ensured that Chris was active in sports until Chris was unable to participate. When Chris' health caused him to lose all his hair, his Dad had his head shaved in support of his son. Rick was a kind, loving and generous Father.
