“ *Angie and Family,
Know you are in my continued prayers. While I didn't get to know Maurice as well as I know you Angie, I didn't have to in order to know what a special man, husband and father he was. Your love for one another and your faith in Christ throughout this journey has inspired me. Blessings of peace and comfort in the days ahead.
Love, Sheri and the Logue Family*

“ I strongly believe that Dad can send us signs that he is ok and is watching over us. The other day, during my drive home, I saw two things that I instinctively recognized as such signs from Dad. I saw clouds forming the shape of a kiss. And most amazingly of all, I saw a rainbow (on a rain-less day) that occupied a space right next to the sun and it was not the arch that we're used to seeing - but a perfect circle! It lasted my entire 50-minute drive. It was breathtaking! Thank you for these signs, Dad. I laughed and I cried. Love you always!

“ Such a great loss. I will always remember working with Maurice and all the many talks with him about our famil'ys. I nicknamed him the Gentle Giant. He was truly one of a kind. I'll miss you my friend. Billy Stephens

“Dad had just been through a transfusion and must have been exhausted and in pain. Martin had just gotten out of critical care and was dazed by his new heart meds. They are on the phone and Martin says: "Dad, you sound better than me! I want to be on whatever you're on." Dad replied: "It's not the meds that are keeping me well, son, it's Jesus.”
