“ My Uncle Max was a lover of God and a lover of people. He and Aunt Marcy have always been two of my most favorite people! Growing up I loved staying at their house, my Granny West lived there too and she was my very best friend ever! They were all kind of short in stature, but they will always be Giants In My Heart!! I would tell Uncle Max, "You and Aunt Marcy are like two precious baby dolls, I just want to love you and squeeze you and place you only bed!" He would just laugh.

Aunt Marcy, Becky and Ken,

Just know that Randy and I love you all very much. And we are sooo thankful that we were able to see all of you in March! Blessings, call us any time.

“ This is my Uncle Max. He and my Aunt Marcy always reminded me of two precious baby dolls that I just wanted to Love, and squeeze and keep forever. I've always loved them so much! And it may have been partially because my Granny West lived with them, but I always loved spending time at their house.

*Uncle Max loved God and he loved people. What a great testimony.
Thank you Jesus*
