

Mr. Patrick Walter Dilday

September 29, 1946 - December 12, 2016

Patrick Walter Dilday of the Woodville area completed his earthly journey on Monday, December 12. He was born in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, only child of Anna Marie and Charles Dilday, who both died when he was in his teens. He attended the University of Minnesota and served in the U.S. Navy. He is survived by his wife and partner of 36 years, Judith Stricklin, and her children; Robert and Carol Stricklin of Safety Harbor, Don and Lisa Stricklin of Marietta, Ga., Nancy Guidry of Tallahassee, and grandchildren Drew and Claire Stricklin of Marietta, Ga., all of whom he loved as his own. He loved blues guitar, good machines and tools, and bad puns. He will be remembered for his encyclopedic knowledge of music and his fund of concert stories. Family and friends will gather at the home from 2 to 5 on Saturday, December 17 to remember his life and exchange "Patrick stories". Abbey Funeral Home is assisting with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Judy, I am very sorry to hear of your loss. Patrick was my friend for over 50 years. It's a shame it couldn't have been more. Rest peacefully, Patrick.

Larry

Larry Orchard - December 14, 2016 at 07:39 AM

Larry, this was so nice of you to be friends with him for such a long time. I am the girl that dated Greg LaMair and you three hung out together. Melinda - Now Linda Sona-Kohler

Linda Kohler - October 08, 2017 at 06:48 PM

Hi my name is Mike and I am (was) looking for an old friend from Sioux Falls. If I could see a picture to be sure your Pat is also my Pat. I remember Pat learning to play the six string guitar and he also went hair dressing school. Please use face book

Mike Coulter

Mike Coulter - December 20, 2018 at 12:35 PM