

Mr. Paul J Milam

July 15, 1938 - April 3, 2021

Paul J. Milam, 82, of Tallahassee, died Saturday, April 3, 2021.

Paul is survived by his wife Patricia Clark Milam and their children, Mitzi McGhin, Brett (Erin) Milam, and Paula (Tully) Sparkman. He is also survived by a brother, George (Ola) Milam of Winter Springs, and a sister Wynell Williams of Quincy.

Paul started his career as a salesman for Colonial Baking Co., then many years with Flowers Baking Co. (Sunbeam Bread). He then started his own business as a distributor for snacks such as cookies, candies, gum, chips, etc. In retirement, Paul and Pat spent many years of RV camping, water sports and traveling the U.S. He also loved his fishing and spending time with the grandkids.

Paul loved his Savior and he was a faithful member of Immanuel Baptist Church. He did not hesitate to tell everyone about Jesus.

Paul was a wonderful husband, father and Papa to his kids and grandkids. Before he got sick, he loved watching his grandkids play football, baseball and softball every chance he got.

Memorial service will be held Thursday, April 8, 2021, at 11 o'clock at Immanuel Baptist Church with visitation at 10 o'clock.

Special thanks to Big Bend Hospice Care nurses and staff. Online condolences may be expressed at www.abbeyfh.com.

“ Paul was a dear friend to my mother, Eloise Krell, especially after my father, George, died. He visited her faithfully, bringing news of the church when she couldn't attend, and bringing fried fish! I'll always think of him with love and as the essence of a good Christian. My sympathy to all of you!
