“ Stephen and I just can't believe that Paul is gone. Time has become such a thief. Always feeling like you will catch up sometime and then time is all of a sudden gone. He was a force. Always there if you needed him and always so much fun. We loved him dearly and always will. This hurts a lot.

“ Paul...I still can't believe you are gone. You've left a huge void and it hurts all of us. I miss you already and I will miss you the rest of my life.

We met at a party at Eddie Hogan's house in 1984. I was a junior and you were a sophomore at Leon. We fell in love and were inseparable for the next 8 years, even moving to El Paso, Texas together. What an exciting and adventurous time that was for us. You loved the desert and beautiful mountains for a while, but your desire to be near the water took you back home. The distance didn't stop our special bond for over 42 years.

Now, everywhere I look, whether it's the mountains of Ruidoso, NM, where we would frequently go camping, ride horses, motorcycles, etc., I will see your face and be taken back to some of the happiest days and sweetest memories of my life, because of you being in it. It's a miracle we lived through some of your "stunts" on your motorcycle. People would ask you back then what you wanted to be when you grew up. Well, i'm not sure you ever really did grow up, but you would always say "a professional stunt man!"

You always protected me, stuck up for me and supported me. Always a gentleman and a man's man and always willing to help anyone that needed it.

Life was certainly fun and never a dull moment was had. You became part of my family and a very important part of my life, forever. Our trips boating on the Suwannee River, canoeing down the Soppchopy (sp) River and flipping ours and my parent's canoes' while retrieving their contents before they sank, Neil cussing and my mom laughing and me probably mad because you got my hair wet are memories I will think of forever with a smile. We also worked together at Barnaby's at 17 years old. Your first job was at your grandfather Miller's supermarket on 4th Avenue. You would stop by my house on your Yamaha XT 250 and show off while doing wheelies across the parking lot and trying not to be late!

Going back home to Tallahassee is going to be extremely difficult as everywhere I look, I will see you. We lived "The Notebook", until we didn't. We were each other's first "true loves" and I will love you and remember you the rest of my life.
