

Mrs. Polly Nancy Ann Owens Sadler

November 22, 1926 - January 31, 2022

Polly Nancy Ann Owens Sadler, of Tallahassee, Florida, peacefully passed away in the early morning hours of Monday, January 31, 2022, while surrounded by her loving family. Her wait to join her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in Heaven is now over.

Born in Jupiter, Florida on November 22, 1926, she was a daughter of General Jackson Owens and Elizabeth Day Owens, of blessed memory. She is also reunited with her loving husband of 35 years, Shirley James Sadler; daughter, Sylvia Sadler; and siblings, General Jackson Owens, Jr., Leonard Owens, Merle Wyatt and Doris Woodward.

Cherishing her memories are her children, Phyllis Sadler, Nancy Karen Davis, Pamela Sadler Moore Binek, Cynthia Willingham (Rich) and Amy Sadler, (Butch Cato); grandchildren, James Moore, Amanda Moore Price (Nelson), Amber Kreis, Michael Spence, Edward Spence and Jeremiah Cato; eight great-grandchildren; as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

A dedicated homemaker and member of Capital Heights Baptist Church, she was known as MawMaw to her grandchildren. She made the best biscuits in the South, spoke to the Lord and read the Bible daily and loved to sing hymns. She never turned away anyone that needed help and lived in her house for 38 years, staying there up until the time of her passing.

Visitation is 11:00 AM, Saturday, February 5, 2022 at Capital Heights Baptist Church, with the funeral service following at 12:00 PM. Interment will follow at Brock Cemetery in Climax, Georgia.

Memorial donations may be made to Second Harvest of the Big Bend. The online guestbook can be found at www.abbeyfh.com.

“ Maw maw I have so many memories with you. I like to think we had a special bond but the truth is, you made everyone feel like they had a special bond. To have had you here with me for 45 of my years is one of the greatest gifts of this life. Oliver, Cooper, and lola were so blessed to have your light as their great grandmother. You never did or could see how incredible you were. But we saw. You will be missed so fiercely. I know the angels are rejoicing. I love you maw maw.

“ I didn't come see you as often as I should have. But you know I love you now and forever. Rest peacefully, Mama. You deserve the rest. You toiled hard here on earth. Have an ice cream party with Grandma Owens and all those who were called home before you and remember those left behind to remember you. I know you are now one of our guardian angels. Love you forever! Cindy

“ I love you, Mama. There are so many memories flooding my soul and I all I hear is you singing hymns in my ear. I don't know how, but we will manage. Hug all of the family, especially Daddy and Sylvia. Until we meet again, Mama. I love you more than I could ever express.
