“ I had the privilege of spending a few hours with Bob a couple of days before he went on to heaven. He was confused about where he was but not about the Lord! He was preaching to the nurses and staff while his bed was temporarily out in the hall! He didn't know who I was and thought his nurse was someone else but when Hazel walked in the room I'll never forget him looking up with a smile and saying "Hi Babe." I had the pleasure of looking into Bob's eyes in his last days and knew he was seeing angles. RIP Bob, we'll help you watch over Hazel. Arlee J. Colman with David Colman.
