

Mrs. Ruth Eubanks Gwaltney

December 25, 1921 - December 6, 2016

Ruth Eubanks Gwaltney, 94, died December 6, 2016 in Tallahassee, Fla. A long-time resident of Tallahassee, she was a native of Aiken, SC. She was the daughter of the late Myrtle Owens Eubanks and Leon Champion Eubanks.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, Daniel Gwaltney, Sr.; her son, David Gwaltney; grandson, Greg Cooksey; and brothers, Leon Eubanks and George 'Bud' Eubanks.

Ruth retired from Central Telephone Company. During her retirement years she enjoyed being a homemaker and a grandmother, and cooking delicious meals for her loved ones. Her wit and intellect were well appreciated by her family and friends, as was her generous nature.

She is survived by her daughters, Harriet McDonald (Bob) of Ochlocknee Bay, Fla., Carolyn Flowers (Will Luck) of Meigs, Ga.; her sons, Dan Gwaltney (Linda) of Chattahoochee, Fla.; Sam Gwaltney (Debbie) of Tallahassee; beloved daughter-in-law, Lynne Gwaltney of Cairo, Ga.; brother, Marion Eubanks (Edna) of Aiken, SC; sister-in-law, Gloria Danielowski of Prosperity, SC; 8 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild; numerous nieces and nephews, and several cousins.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to a favorite charity. A private memorial service will be held at a later date. Online condolences may be made at www.abbeyfh.com.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ She had a beautiful soul. My husband and I were honoured to spend this past Thanksgiving with her. She told us stories of her childhood and teased her daughter (Carolyn) about how she was raised.

She was so kind and sweet and even told us about some of her favorite recipes. She was truly a wonderful woman, and she will be greatly missed.

Kodi Mill - December 10, 2016 at 09:05 AM