

Stephen Lee McFadden

June 11, 1952 - January 29, 2026

Stephen Lee McFadden , 73, of Tallahassee, Florida, passed away peacefully at his home on Wednesday, January 29, 2026.

He was born in Memphis, Tennessee and lived in Louisiana, California, South Carolina, and finally, Florida. After his long career in the printing industry, Steve opened a small woodworking shop in Kinston, North Carolina where he crafted custom furniture and cabinets. In 1990, he retired and moved to Gainesville, Florida and later to Tallahassee in 2017. A skilled craftsman, Steve loved woodworking and building model ships and planes from original scaled plans.

He is preceded in death by his father, Dr. Wave McFadden, and his mother, Lucy Wooten, brothers Ray McFadden and Douglas McFadden.

He is survived by his wife, Paulette Sizemore McFadden, his children, Christopher McFadden of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Elizabeth Koelndorfer and husband Michael Koelndorfer of Niceville, Florida, grandson Riley Koelndorfer of Indianapolis, Indiana, and brother Calvin McFadden of Rustin Louisiana.
