“ To all of Timmy's children, brothers and sisters. I am so sorry for the loss of Timmy and at such a young age. May God bless and comfort each one of you. My fondest memory of Timmy is his love for country music. At family gatherings, we would sit him on the table and have him sing Delta Dawn all the way through which he could do before age 3. He was always a happy child, full of energy and mischief. I wish I had lived closer and been able to know Timmy as an adult. I know he will be missed by all. With all my love and prayers - AUNT FAYE and FAMILY.

“ May you wrap him in your memories. I can still see his little blonde hair running around Granny Rentz's and at Aunt Faye's house in Adel. God Bless him and all of you my sincere condolences for your loss.
